As a resident of the City of Karratha for over 25 years, I have a deep understanding and connection with our community. As a single dad with two primary school-aged children, I know firsthand the challenges families face and am passionate about creating a safe, supportive environment for them to thrive. My involvement on a local school board and my experience as a sports coach and umpire highlight my dedication to our youth and fostering positive, healthy lifestyles.

My role as a lecturer at the local TAFE allows me to engage with a wide range of residents, from young students to adult learners, ensuring I have a broad perspective on the needs and aspirations of our diverse community. With strong roots in various local activities and initiatives, I am committed to advocating for all residents. I will bring fresh ideas, active engagement, and a deep commitment to improving our city, ensuring it remains a vibrant, inclusive place for everyone.
